

Migration in Cities: Focus on ethnic groups

November 6th 2009

European Union House, 18 Dawson Street
(Corner of Dawson street and Molesworth Street) Dublin 2

PROGRAMME

Morning

- 09:30-09:45 Coffee
- 09:45-09:50 Pertti Majanen, Ambassador of Finland to Ireland: Welcome
- 09:50-10:00 John Curran, Minister of State, Ireland
- 10:00-12:00 Professor James Wickham, Trinity College Dublin: Migration Policy in the Recession
- Justyna Salamonska, Trinity College Dublin: Middling Migration – Polish migrants' careers in Dublin
- Mr. Gerry Folan, City of Dublin: Comments

Afternoon

- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-14:30 Vesa Puuronen, University of Kuopio: Racialization of Russians in Finland
- Olga Davydova, Karelian institute, University of Joensuu: Russian immigrant women on the border
- Annika Forsander, City of Helsinki: Comments
- 14:30-15:00 Break
- 15:00-16:30 Viola Donata Rauch, Center for Metropolitan Studies, Berlin: Urban Identification of second and third generation migrants in Berlin
- Cordelia Polinna, Center for Metropolitan Studies, Berlin: Regenerating Immigrant Neighbourhoods Through Strategies of Touristification: Examples from London, New York, Berlin
- Arnold Mengelkoch, City of Berlin: Comments
- 16:30-17:00 Discussion
- 17:00 Seminar ends